Section 1. The service agreement between the two parties sets out clear payment terms and delivery dates for the software project.

Section 2. The service agreement between the two parties sets out clear payment terms and delivery dates for the software project.

Section 3. The service agreement between the two parties sets out clear payment terms and delivery dates for the software project.

Section 4. The service agreement between the two parties sets out clear payment terms and delivery dates for the software project.

Section 5. The service agreement between the two parties sets out clear payment terms and delivery dates for the software project.